Oliver Springs Coal Camp Captured and Coal Creek Investigated—Anarchy Rampant—Troops Called Out—The Governor Takes Tardy Action.

Anarchy Supreme in the Mining District.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17.—Anarchy reigns supreme in the mining region here in the state of Tennessee. Excitement here is intense and is heightened by the lack of definite information from the coal camps of the state. The wires have been cut. The mob is in actual possession of the property of the East Tennessee Coal and Iron Company. They have cut the wires in numerous places, torn up the tracks in every direction and captured every locomotive in the mining region.

At a late hour last night over 1,000 miners captured three locomotives and several empty coal cars at Coal Creek and forced the engineers to take them to Oliver Springs, where about thirty-five convicts were employed in the mines of the Cumberland Coal Co. They arrived at Oliver about 4 o'clock this morning. At 7 o'clock they assaulted the stockade, and a bloody battle ensued. The stockade was defended by fifty picked guards and a company of thirty-eight militiamen. Two companies of national guards on route from Chattanooga via Harriman, were compelled to take to the side of the stockade. A few miles from Harriman, on account of displaced rails, hundreds of shots were exchanged, but strange to say, no one was injured. The guards and militiamen, finding it was useless to combat a force of 1,000 infuriated and determined men, quietly surrendered. The convicts, guards and soldiers were loaded on a train of flat cars and the engineer, at the muzzle of a Winchester rifle, was compelled to pull the train out in the direction of Knoxville. The stockade was then burned to the ground.

Arriving at Clinton, permission was obtained from the railway officials to bring the convicts to this city. The train, which was the only one in or about for twenty-four hours, arrived here at the Knoxville and this morning at 5 o'clock, and was soon surrounded by an immense throng of the curious.

A special train left the station at 5 p. m., taking the convicts to the main prison at Nashville. Four convicts escaped between Oliver and this city. Communication with Coal Creek was restored this afternoon. The lines were again repaired, and the miners took possession of the office at Coal Creek, and to prevent the handling of regular business fled thousands of words of staff. They paid for all messages at regular rates and the company could not refuse them. The miners have two or three operators employed, and it is impossible to get a message through with anything like privacy.

Great Excitement at Chattanooga—An Appeal for Volunteers.—CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 17.—Bulletin posted in the leading buildings of this city tell the following story: "Tennessee to Arms!" "Will You Answer Your State to Be Disgraced?" "The Miners Have Captured Soldiers, Let Volunteers Come to the Aid of the State!" "Lieutenant Rector is in the Armory Ready to Recruit Volunteers."

"Bring Any Kind of Weapon You Have!" A thousand people stood in the drizzling rain reading these bulletins. Terror was added when Col. Woolford wired from Harriman that the thirty Knoxville soldiers had been captured en route to Oliver Springs. The wires were cut, and no one could say what fate they would meet. Mayor Anderson wired Col. Woolford not to leave Harriman with the boys if he doubted his ability to put up successfully a fight, and the dispatch, together with the capture of the Knoxville boys, caused instant demoralization among the troops. It is estimated that fully 5,000 armed miners are in the field in east Tennessee, and the fight against Gov. Buchanan has not offered to assist the little knot of men from Chattanooga, and no other state troops are even thinking of going to the milking of the situation. Citizens are very indignant at the governor's course, and loud threats of lynching the governor are freely made in the streets.

A corporal's guard is trying to corral the rioting militiamen and get them into the armories. Some have arrived, but very few can be found. Some of the citizens are forming companies to leave at 6 o'clock for the scene of the trouble, and all kinds of weapons are being gathered for use in the fight, which is sure to come. Camp Anderson to be Assaulted With Militiamen for Breakfast.—KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17.—Passengers on a train that just arrived from Coal Creek say that Camp Anderson at that place, the only point in the state where convicts are at work, will be taken to-night. The assault will take place before midnight, as they say. Over 1,000 miners are massed at Coal Creek, and two companies of militia sent to Oliver last night. They looked the soldiers in the face and said they would force the camp at Clinton this morning, and then Agent Strong marched them across the mountain to Coal Creek, and when the proposed assault on the camp was made, they refused to march to meet the soldiers, and have sent word to the officers in command of the camp to believe that the officers of the camp will refuse to fire on them as long as the soldiers are in front. The miners held a meeting this afternoon, and several warlike speeches were made. Those in a position to know say that Camp Anderson will be defended to the last.

The entire state militia ordered out. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 17.—The second regiment, consisting of four companies of infantry and an artillery company, will be on the march to-night. Fully 900 men will be ready to face the miners to-morrow, and a bloody conflict may be expected unless the miners change their present plans. At 11 p. m.—Gov. Buchanan has ordered the entire state militia under Gen. Sam. T. Carter. They will move to the front at once. The sheriffs of the counties of Knox, Shelby, Hamilton and Davidson were ordered to summon 1,000 men each and go on a special train to the scene. The governor claims to be able to have 8,000 men on the ground to-morrow at 10 o'clock. Gov. Buchanan intended to go to Coal Creek to-night, but was taken ill and is in a serious condition from nervous prostration. The state board of prison inspectors to-day demanded that the lease of the penitentiary, the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co., carry out their contract. Failing to do so at the end of twenty days the lease will be declared forfeited.

Kentucky Miners Take a Hand. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17.—A private message received at midnight says that 600 miners from Kentucky took charge of the East Tennessee freight train at Joliet, Kentucky, and are now on their way to Coal Creek. The conductor of the train refused at first to start out, but the men compelled him to do so by force of arms. Two or three hundred miners from the mining towns on the Cincinnati Southern road are en route to Coal Creek, and it is estimated that the force of 3,000 men will be gathered there by early morning. Trouble is not expected to-night. A dispatch has been sent Gov. Buchanan to the effect that if the troops are not withdrawn from Coal Creek early to-morrow they will be assaulted. It is understood here tonight that Gov. Buchanan will endeavor to compromise matters to-morrow.

Memphis to the Rescue. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The Chicago news guards whose membership is composed of the Memphis upper ten, the Eastern railways, Emmet rifles and battery B of the second regiment, left Memphis last night at 6 o'clock via the Memphis & Charleston road for East Tennessee, to the aid of the state militia. The Memphis companies are well drilled and equipped and while they dislike the business of defending convicts, they are ready for any duty that may fall to their lot. They were accompanied by the Memphis National Guards, commander of the Tennessee national guards.

A Battle Raging Between Troops and Miners. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17.—The telegraph wires from Coal Creek have been cut. It is reported that a battle is raging between troops and miners. Cannonading can be heard in the distance. The streets here are crowded with a howling mob, and the greatest excitement prevails.

Five newspaper correspondents, who went to Coal Creek, have been captured by miners and are held as prisoners. Gov. Buchanan Wiring Up. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The sheriff of this county (Deaton) has been requested by the governor to raise 1,000 volunteers to suppress the mine trouble at Coal Creek. It is thought similar orders have been issued to other sheriffs.

THE IRON HALL.

Drafts of the Order Forged to Protect by the Selling of Judge Taylor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 18.—Drafts of the order of the Iron Hall on M. C. Davis, the supreme court justice, which have been obtained by the Meridian national bank through the clearing house, went to protest yesterday. Judge Taylor issued an order to the Meridian national bank, and it was not until the order was received that the bank was notified. The order was not received until the bank was notified. The order was not received until the bank was notified.

It was learned that there are a good many checks of the order out, some of them for considerable sums. The checks are well drilled and equipped and while they dislike the business of defending convicts, they are ready for any duty that may fall to their lot. They were accompanied by the Memphis National Guards, commander of the Tennessee national guards.

It is said that the court was informed that since the supreme justice convened here large sums of the order's money have been paid out.

The order is being taken as a certain evidence that a receiver will be appointed when the case is called Friday. In fact the court has already taken the first steps in that direction.

A RUSSIAN NIHILIST

Arrested in Pittsburgh in Disguise and Heavily Armed

UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.

He Proves to Be the Brother-in-Law of a Russian Count, Who, However, Was Not Aware that He Was a Nihilist.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 18.—A man, supposed to be a Russian nihilist, was arrested by Detective Coulson yesterday. He was a false beard, and had a large revolver and a dirk on his person. He is regarded as a dangerous character. While at breakfast in the Merchants' Hotel, on Water street, it was discovered that he was a nihilist. The detectives were notified and followed him through the streets. When about half way between Smithfield and Woods streets, on Fifth avenue, the supposed nihilist stopped a German, and in the German language asked some questions. The man pointed down the street towards Mr. Erie's office. Coulson immediately arrested the nihilist and took him to the office of the chief of police in the city hall.

Coulson compelled the man to remove his false beard, which he said he was wearing to disguise his face. He was wearing a false beard, and had a large revolver and a dirk on his person. He is regarded as a dangerous character.

The man first gave the name of Oyder, and afterwards the name of George Lehnberger. He was then searched, and on his person was found the address of "Charles Stadler, Government Engineer, County Workhouse, Allegheny, Pa." The man first gave the name of Oyder, and afterwards the name of George Lehnberger.

An investigation proves that this place is where the nihilists in Russia were sent, and the police decided to hold him. Another letter was found addressed to Lehnberger, at Johnstown, and it was decided to telegraph the police there. In a short time an answer came back that the man was wanted at that place on a charge of criminal assault on a 14-year-old girl.

Lehnberger was then taken to the police station, and he was held in the city hall. He was then taken to the police station, and he was held in the city hall. He was then taken to the police station, and he was held in the city hall.

YOU CAN TAKE COMFORT

In a room that seems not only to invite you to walk in but stay in. To have any other kind of a room is worse than absurd
when we are selling Easy Chairs and Parlor Goods at such Extremely Low Prices as at present, either for Cash or on Easy Payments. You get part of your money back every time you look round the room. It is perfectly true that there is no place like home, but it is also perfectly true that some homes might be a good deal more cheerful, cozy and comfortable than they are. Bleak and barron enough were the houses of long ago but there is certainly no excuse for that kind of thing now when we offer you such bargains.

RAOES AT THE MACON FAIR

Baby D. Brigham and Combat Jr. the Winners—Notes.

The second day of the Macon fair was well attended. The forenoon was taken up in awarding premiums in the horse ring. The exhibits in this department are large and some fine animals are entered in all the classes.

THE RACES. In the speed ring there are a large number of good horses and races will be closely contested. Three races were run yesterday: Two-year-old trot, purse $10 and $1; running race, 1/2 mile dash, $10 and $5; three minute trot for purse of $25 and $15, three best in five. A green pace was on the program but did not fill. The races were uninteresting with the exception of the three minute trot. This was hotly contested, and while no great time was made it was the opinion of the majority of those present that it was the best race that has ever taken place on this track. Below are the summaries:

The 2-year-old trot—Purse $15.
Baby D. Brigham, Macon, 2:15.1
Maggie Bell—Hill, Blue Mound, 2:15.1
Time 2:14.3.2.

Running race, 1/2 mile dash, purse $10 and $5.
Mollie Moore, Decatur, Brigham, Singletree, won by Brigham, Gertrude second, Singletree third; time 36. Mollie Moore was drawn on account of her running away and throwing her rider.

Three minute trot—Purse $40.
J. N. Johnson, 3:04.3
Combat Jr., 3:04.3
Maggie Bell, 3:04.3
Baby D., 3:04.3
Time 3:03.3, 3:04.3, 3:04.3.

In the third heat J. N. was set back to third place for running.

Combat Jr. was by Robert Patterson, of Macon, and J. N. by J. N. McDermott, of Decatur.

Prof. Morrow, of Champaign, gave an interesting talk to an appreciative audience in the forenoon.

John Nichols, of Decatur, exhibits fifteen head of thoroughbred Oxford-Durham sheep. J. A. Montgomery and F. Tomlinson each have three pens of the same breed.

The only entry of hogs is by Parker Thomas, of this place, who exhibits three pens of Poland Chinas.

J. W. Walker, of Walker Station, exhibits six head of thoroughbred Essex-Fordes; Robert Patterson, six head of thoroughbred Jerseys, and William Landrum two head of Jerseys.

The judges Wednesday were George Watt and N. D. Hill, of Decatur, and M. G. Terry, of Todd's Point.

Considerable excitement was raised on the ground Wednesday morning by the coach stallion owned by the Macon Breeders' Association, and the standard-bred stallion, Chief, owned by Robert Patterson, getting loose from their keepers and fighting.

No person on the grounds was hurt. The Patterson stallion received a hard kick but no serious results are apprehended.

Some time during the day the heavy draft stallion owned by Mr. Patterson got out of his stall at home and attacked a saddle horse in the barn and used it up pretty badly—almost skinning it.

The display of agricultural products is very good, considering the season.

While the exhibits in the fine arts department are not as large as last year, the articles are much finer, and better taste is displayed.

The free-for-all trot Friday promises to be an interesting race.

The Misses McGraw, of Sadonore, are the guests of R. H. Woodcock and family.

The gate receipts Wednesday were $225.

What came very near being a fatal accident occurred yesterday afternoon during the races, at the Macon fair. Preparations were in progress for the one-half-mile running race. "Mollie Moore" the Mt. Auburn gray mare, came on the track ridden by a Decatur boy, black. She came up to the judge's stand but became frightened and started around the track at break-neck speed, and when just opposite the entrance gate turned into her stall, throwing her rider violently to the ground. People were soon at the rider's side, expecting to find him or seriously injured, but strange to relate, besides a bad shake up and a good scare the boy was all right. The mare not having a rider was withdrawn from the races which was won by Brigham in 56 seconds.

Chas. Oram, publisher of the Macon Record is issuing a very creditable daily during the fair. It is a six-column paper and is well patronized by the Decatur and Macon merchants.

The "Kempston Comedy Ko" is holding the boards here during the fair. They travel in their own car, which they use in place of stopping at the hotels. The company is about the average. They opened last night in "The Black Flag" to a good house; to-night they produce "Escaped from Sing Sing."

Decatur is well represented at the fair. Kempston's band is furnishing music for the fair, and is giving good satisfaction.

The "merry-go-round" is getting its share of patronage.

The cyclorama of the "Battle of Gettysburg" is one of the leading attractions at the fair. The painting is a fine one, covering over 275 feet of canvas.

The street beggars—organ grinders and singers—are well represented as usual.

The small display in floral hall is a splendid object lesson of the fallacy of holding early crops there at a high price. A pumpkin is in the place of a pumpkin without a prize pumpkin is a likely play of Hamlet with the character of Hamlet left out.

GO DOWN WITH THE CLUB

Major F. L. Hays Appointed Chief Marshal—George Bell, First Serg't.

The Republican Special Train will Leave Promptly at 5 O'clock.—Be There on Time.

This is the day and date for the trip of the Republican Escort Club to Springfield to participate in the opening state demonstration in honor of Hon. William Reid, the next vice president. The Decatur train will leave the Union depot promptly at 6 o'clock. There will be plenty of coaches for everybody. Goodman's Band, the drum corps and the martial band will go along, and at the head of the procession will be borne the Republican club banner which was used in the '88 campaign.

CLUB MEETING. The martial band was out last night for the called meeting of the Republican Escort Club at which President McKiff presided, with C. N. Treadwell as secretary pro tem. The time of the departure of the train was announced, coupled with the announcement that the train would arrive at the capital at 7:10 o'clock in ample time for the parade, which will start at 7:30.

It was also announced that Major F. L. Hays had been selected for the trip to serve as chief marshal, and that George Bell would go on duty as first sergeant.

In response to calls W. F. Calhoun and Hon. D. P. Keller addressed the club briefly. The remarks of the gentlemen were confined mainly to the tariff question, and both exposed the hypocrisy of the Democratic speakers and newspapers on the tariff, the financial and labor questions.

NOYES. This evening the bands and all who will go to Springfield will meet at the court house at 5:15 sharp, to march to the train which will pull out at 6.

President H. K. McKiff, A. H. Miller, W. C. Johns, A. H. Cope, Ed. White and H. W. Bartholomew left this morning for Springfield.

James Benmaster is the color bearer for the Republican Escort club. He will find the beautiful banner at the Harborside office.

The Blue Mound Republican club will be in the parade. An order came from Boody yesterday for forty white coats.

Amusements. Race week, beginning August 23, Eunice Goodrich and her excellent company. Change of play nightly. Popular prices.

The regular season opens with the distinguished musician, "Blue Jeans," Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 5 and 6. From the pen of Joseph Arthur. A dramatic triumph unequalled in the annals of the stage of this country. The same grand production which achieved a reign of phenomenal prosperity in 300 nights at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, New York City. The same great company. Incidents include a live Angus bull, the quaint country band, the Rustic Quartet, the baritone, the King's Ban, the Blue Jeans baby, and the intensely thrilling Saw-Mill scene, every scene received with the wildest enthusiasm.

The J. M. Dodd Barn Fire. At about 7 o'clock this morning in some mysterious manner J. M. Dodd's barn at 647 West Decatur street took fire and made a hot fire, which caused many people to hurry through breakfast or take it later. Mr. Dodd had his horse out in the lot, and was close to the barn when flames broke through the opening in the hayloft. He saved three vehicles but lost $50 worth of tools. The fire department arrived in less than five minutes and did great work in saving adjacent property, while the total destruction of the barn was prevented. The loss is about $250, fully covered by insurance.

The minstrel performance at the Grand last night drew a large audience despite the heat. George Primrose was there in his grace and fan, but Billy West did not materialize. The performance was gilded throughout, the first part being especially good. The setting of the stage for the first race was quite elaborate, the main feature being inverted Japanese umbrellas of huge size, trimmed with colored incandescent lights. All of the performers appeared in rich Japanese costumes. Morris Cronin the Indian club swinger, made a big hit. His work is simply marvelous. It has never been equaled on any stage. It was a good show.

How John L. Will Travel. Sullivan will leave New York for New Orleans on the evening of September 1. In addition to the state-room car there will be a baggage car on the train fitted up as a gymnasium so that the champion can exercise on the trip down.

Sullivan's admirers to the number of 400 will occupy other cars attached to the train. The route will be from New York to Buffalo, to Cincinnati, to New Orleans.

A Card. To those people who are still under the impression that we are not yet ready to do the laundry work, I wish to say we can handle all the work left in our care. It is generally understood that we do the finest laundering in Central Illinois. I have also the very best bath in the city. Hot and cold baths 10 cents.

DRAW LIKE A CIRCUS.

A Row on Bradford Street About a Boy—It Was a Draw.

There were two early sensations in Decatur this morning, in different quarters of the city. One was the J. M. Dodd barn fire on West Decatur street, and the other was a sharp duel with a whip and cane on East Bradford street. The fire could not have been hotter than the fight, while the neighborhood row certainly afforded a greater amount of fun and drew a large crowd of people to the scene of the engagement.

The participants in the duel were M. C. Van Hall, the pinless clothes line man, and a young man named Briggs, Mr. Van Hall resides at 920 North Water street, and has a large family. Among the children is a boy who it appears was punished by Briggs for some indiscretion. Van heard of the assault just as he was about to drive off in his two-seater surry. The father was naturally quite angry and he proceeded at once to the home of Briggs on Bradford street to give Briggs a chastisement. Briggs was home, and Mr. Van Hall formally informed him that he had come over to whip him. Briggs made no reply except to say if Van Hall struck him he might get the worst of it. Hot words were exchanged rapidly, terminating in Van Hall striking Briggs with his buggy whip. Briggs had no weapon of defense, but he made a quick run into the house, and returned with a stout cane, with which he proceeded to larrup Van Hall as vigorously as he could. The Van Hall boy ran behind Briggs to assist in doing him up, but he got in the way of the swinging cane, which struck him in a tender point, and he hopped away crying out: "I'm killed, I'm killed." Meanwhile the cane and whip were rapidly moving, and for a time it seemed that the battle might be a draw, when Van Hall received a blow on the temple which caused the blood to flow copiously. The fight then stopped. Briggs went back to the house, whereupon the Van Hall children and friends set up the cry that Briggs was going to get a shotgun. After receiving the cut in his head, Van Hall put up one hand to stop the flow of blood, and with the whip he endeavored to further chastise his assailant. It was up-hill work. Finally when hostilities had ceased, friends aided Van Hall in getting into his buggy, and with one hand he drove home to receive medical treatment. He was mourning with pain. Briggs was unhurt, but as there was no referee there was no official statement made as to the result of the duel.

The street and walks were crowded with people who ran to the scene from every direction, and as the fight went on everybody had fun out of it, because of the novelty of the weapons used, and because of the difference in the size of the combatants. No arrests.

WARRANT SVOEN OUT.

The fight is to be carried into the courts. This forenoon W. J. Briggs appeared in Judge Hume's court and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Van Hall, charging him with assault. Briggs told the Justice that Van Hall had expatriated in his face and had struck him with his fist and a club before the complaint got the one to defend himself. Officer Leech made the arrest this afternoon.

Must Keep Out.

A move has been made at last towards exterminating the noisy newboys at the depot. The readers of the Republican will recall the narrow escape a little boy had yesterday from being mangled under the cars after he had been knocked down by a careless newboy who was running for the depot. Mr. K. Tugart, of the Central House, has issued an order compelling the newboys to walk from the train to the depot, and allowing only one boy to sell in the depot at a time. So the boys pulled straps and snored one by one, and the newboys were kept out. This is a splendid move on the part of Mr. Tugart, and will be appreciated by not only the traveling public but the guests of the Central House.

Ferguson and daughter, Miss Gussie, Miss Zora Osborne, Miss Nora Parker, Mrs. Samuel Trotter, Miss Birdie Wagoner, Miss Mame Sweeney, Miss Lillian Stevens, Miss Ida Arthur, Miss Julia Nicholson, Miss Nannie Trux and others.

Ben Pennyman in Hook.

Ben Pennyman was arrested to-day by Officers Imboden and Williamson on a warrant charging him with the theft of five rings, sworn out by Amanda Perrell. She states that about March last he took the rings from her, and although she has repeatedly asked for the return of her property, he would not give it up. She learned yesterday that he had pawned several, and she grew angry and swore out the warrant. His trial is in progress this afternoon before Justice Shorb.

Sprinting at Bloomington.

A large crowd witnessed the 100-yard foot race between Misson Williams, of Bloomington, and John Curry, of Streator, at the Bloomington fair grounds yesterday afternoon. It was for $200 a side. Curry allowed Williams four feet start. Williams won easily in 9.4 seconds.

A match was immediately made between Williams and Frank Bice, of Streator, for 100 yards, $250 a side, to be run at the Bloomington fair grounds Sept. 1.

OLD SETTLERS' MEETING.

Annual Basket Picnic Reunion at Riverside Park.

ADDRESS BY REV. W. J. RUTLEDGE.

Talk of the Early Days in Illinois, 58 Years Ago—Music by a Male Choir—Old Friends Meet and Chat Together.

The weather to-day for the annual picnic and basket picnic of the Macon County Old Settlers' Association at Riverside Park was all that could be desired, and the people came out in large numbers. When President Gorin called the meeting to order the pavilion was filled with old pioneers of Macon county and their children and children's children.

At 10:30 o'clock the president called the officers of the association to the platform. The services were opened with singing from an old song book of the days when the gaudy consisted of four notes—la, mi, fa, sol—led by the choir.

T. A. Fritch, J. H. Travis, A. C. Stevens, James Barnett and B. W. Rose, Rev. W. J. Rutledge led in prayer. The choir then sang another song.

The president then introduced the speaker of the day, Rev. W. J. Rutledge, of Jacksonville, who said in part: "This is a great country, and much is due to those who broke the prairie and filled the forests in making it great."

The speaker talked entertainingly of the natural advantage of Central Illinois. Proceeding he said: "If I sometimes morose as I go along you will pardon me; I was thinking that just 220 years ago this month seven Frenchmen from Canada took light boats and floated to the Mississippi on an exploring mission. They, however, found evidence on the banks of the river that it was a river of which they had before heard. They started back and on the advice of the Indians took the Illinois river to reach the lake, and thus they were the first explorers of this part of Illinois. I remember 68 years ago 22 families of an name from the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia. We came through Danville when there were hardly enough people to say we. We located in Morgan county. I will say here that I am rich in relations, that is in quantity, it not in quality." Here the speaker described the building of a cabin, which, he said, was built without a nail, and also the one method of forming a good roof. "The name 'Illinois' means men, and may mean the people of Illinois always be men. It is great to be a man. I remember once in Morgan county an old settler was pushed to the front and he said: 'I have heard much about pioneer men; I want to speak for the pioneer women, for there are some of you who would not have been here had it not been for the pioneer mothers. Mrs. Lucump, of whom a historian speaks as a woman of great character, and who was a pioneer of the pioneer fathers and mothers. In the great buildings 14 and 20 stories high in Chicago, you do not see the foundations, but let me tell you the foundation bears the entire superstructure. The society of to-day, the business, the improvement, the law, the day are founded upon the work of the pioneer; they are the foundation, and while you may not see the foundation, it was laid by the pioneer."

Crookedness is the dangerous thing in our country. If we don't want anyone men sent to the penitentiary don't raise them. Those who govern themselves are always paying out money in taxes to those who refuse to govern themselves. Our hope is to make wrong doing as hard as possible and make right as easy as possible and long the premium over right doing and the premium of penalty over wrong doing. We ought to live as well as we want to be when we die. These old settlers ought to go to political offices and support the right men for office. Don't be afraid of politics because some say, "Oh, it's dirty." Why, I heard men say 35 years ago that politics was too dirty and they refused to use his ballot, and it was not long until he and his sons had to go and stir things with bayonets. Be careful, you men who get above politics; you may be as well as you are, but you will stir things with bayonets. There is a fellowship in suffering. During the war there was the son in the brown stone mansion and one in the alley back of the brown stone front; the conditions of these boys were so different that they never associated together, but one day both heard the call to arms; patriotism stirred both boys; both enlisted; they went home arm in arm for the first time; they both went to the front; both were wounded in the same battle; they drank water from the same canteen; they carried to the rear in the same ambulance; to the same hospital; they went home together wounded and the time they rode together in the same carriage to the brown stone mansion. There is a fellowship in suffering. The old pioneer knows this.

Upon the conclusion of the speech the audience sang "America," and then preparations were made for a picnic dinner, the announcement having been made that the picnic dinner would be served at 1:30 o'clock.
